

QKLG 2024: Principle – Sustainability

Nurturing confident and creative lifelong learners

How do teachers and educators in your service:

- enhance children’s understandings about the way human actions and interactions can support the people, animals, plants, lands and waters in your community?
- develop understandings of the interconnected dimensions of sustainability?
- support children to feel connected to their world?
- help children to actively participate in caring for environments and communities?

